

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)
)
)	No. 18-CR-386
v.)
)	Judge Robert W. Gettleman
STUART JOHNSTON)
)

PROTECTIVE ORDER GOVERNING DISCOVERY

Upon the motion of the government, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(d), it is hereby ORDERED:

1. All of the materials provided by the United States in preparation for, or in connection with, any stage of the proceedings in this case (collectively, “the materials”) are subject to this protective order and may be used by the defendant and the defendant’s counsel (defined as counsel of record in this case) solely in connection with the defense of this case, and for no other purposes, and in connection with no other proceeding, without further order of this Court.

2. The defendant and his counsel shall not disclose the materials or their contents directly or indirectly to any person or entity other than persons employed to assist in the defense, persons who are interviewed as potential witnesses, counsel for potential witnesses, and other persons to whom the Court may authorize disclosure (collectively, “authorized persons”). Potential witnesses and their counsel may be shown copies of the materials as necessary to prepare the defense, but may not retain copies without prior permission of the Court.

3. No materials containing taxpayer information obtained from the Internal Revenue Service, including tax returns, tax transcripts, and civil audit papers, or the information contained therein, may be disclosed to any persons other than the defendant, his counsel, persons employed to assist the defense, or the taxpayer on whose behalf such information was provided to the Internal Revenue Service, without prior notice to the government and authorization from the Court, taxpayer information obtained from the Internal Revenue Service shall not be included in any public filing with the Court, and instead shall be submitted under seal (this Order does not, however, prohibit a defendant from making a public filing containing the defendant's own taxpayer information).

4. Certain additional materials disclosed or to be disclosed by the government contain particularly sensitive information, including Social Security numbers and bank account information of one or more persons other than the defendant. No such materials, or the information contained therein, may be disclosed to any person(s) other than the defendant, his counsel, persons employed to assist the defense, or the person to whom the sensitive information solely and directly pertains, without authorization from the Court. Absent prior permission from the Court, such sensitive information shall not be included in any public filing with the Court, and instead shall be submitted under seal (except if the defendant chooses to include in a public document sensitive information relating solely and directly to the defendant).

5. The defendant, his counsel, and authorized persons shall not copy or reproduce the materials except in order to provide copies of the materials for use in connection with this case by the defendant, his counsel, and authorized persons. Such copies and reproductions shall be treated in the same manner as the original materials.

6. The defendant, his counsel, and authorized persons shall not disclose any notes or records of any kind that they make in relation to the contents of the materials, other than to authorized persons, and all such notes or records are to be treated in the same manner as the original materials.

7. Before providing materials to an authorized person, defense counsel must provide the authorized person with a copy of this Order.

8. Upon conclusion of all stage of this case, all of the materials and all copies made thereof shall be disposed of in one of three ways, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. The materials may be (1) destroyed; (2) returned to the United States; or (3) retained in defense counsel's case file. The Court may require a certification as to the disposition of any such materials. In the event that the materials are retained by defense counsel, the restrictions of this Order continue in effect for as long as the materials are so maintained, and the materials may not be disseminated or used in connection with any other matter without further order of the Court.

9. To the extent any material is produced by the United States to defendant or defendant's counsel by mistake, the United States shall have the right to request the return of the material and shall do so in writing. Within five days of the receipt of such a request, defendant and / or defendant's counsel shall return all such material if in hard copy, and in the case of electronic materials, shall certify in writing that all copies of the specified materials have been deleted from any location in which the material was stored.

10. The restrictions set forth in this Order do not apply to documents that are or become part of the public court record, including documents that have been received in evidence at other trials (of which none are currently known), nor do the restrictions in this Order limit defense counsel in the use of discovery materials in judicial proceedings in this case, except that any document filed by any party which attaches or otherwise discloses the contents of taxpayer information obtained from the Internal revenue Service (other than taxpayer information relating solely to the defendant filing the document in question) or specifically identified sensitive information as described in Paragraph 4 above, shall be filed under seal to the extent necessary to protect such information, absent prior permission from this Court.

11. Nothing contained in this Order shall preclude any party from applying to this Court for further relief or modification of any provision hereof.

ENTER:

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Robert W. Gettleman". The signature is written in a cursive style with a horizontal line extending from the end of the name.

ROBERT W. GETTLEMAN
District Judge
United States District Court
Northern District of Illinois

Date: July 19, 2018